

What You Should Know

The I.E.P. Meeting

Your child should have an Individualized Education Plan (I.E.P.) meeting every year in order to review and/or develop the following:

- Present levels of performance
- Measurable annual goals (SMART Goals)
- Special education services provided
- Related services being provided
- Determination of the least restrictive environment
- Program modifications or accommodations
- Transition goals and services, if the child is 16 years or older.

SMART I.E.P. Goals

Specific

Measurable

Action-Driven (use action words)

Realistic and relevant

Time-limited

Example: By October 15, 2008, John will add single-digit numbers with 85% accuracy in 8 out of 10 trials using touch math.

Related Services

- Speech and language therapy
- Occupational therapy
- Physical therapy
- Audiological services
- Vision therapy
- Orientation and mobility instruction
- Adapted physical education (APE)
- Psychological services (AB 3632)
- Health and nursing services
- Assistive technology
- Transportation
- Social skills training
- Behavior intervention services (ABA)

Least Restrictive Environment

- Full inclusion – child is in a regular education classroom with non-disabled peers 100% of the time.
- Mainstreaming – child spends some of the day within regular education setting.
- Resource specialist program (RSP) – child is fully included in most subjects, but is pulled out for extra tutorial assistance.
- Special day class (SDC) – classroom comprised of children with disabilities that need extra curriculum support.
- County program – examples include deaf and hard of hearing and emotionally disturbed classes.
- Non-public school (NPS) – school only with children with disabilities.
- Home / Hospital – children with medical needs that are unable to participate in classroom setting.
- Residential treatment facility
- Lockdown facility

I.E.P. Basics - What You Should Know

Safeguards

- Compliance complaint – You can file against the school district when they have not followed special education laws or if they have not implemented what is already in your child's I.E.P.
 - ❖ Filed with the California Department of Education who will conduct an investigation.
- Due Process – This is a legal procedure that ensues when there is a disagreement between you and the school district as to what should go in the I.E.P.
 - ❖ Often starts with mediation in an attempt to develop a resolution without having to go to hearing.
 - ❖ Mediation is optional.

Reminders to Parents

- You can request an I.E.P. meeting any time you have concerns.
 - The school has 30 days to schedule the requested I.E.P.
- Request copies of your child's assessments prior to the I.E.P. meeting to allow you to review and research.
- You can bring an advocate, attorney, or friend to the I.E.P. meeting.
- You can tape record your I.E.P. meeting.
- Do not sign the I.E.P. unless you are completely satisfied.
